

How can I become a member of this church?

Membership in this church is something to be celebrated and remembered. It's not like being a member of a country club or the local fitness center. Instead, it's something much greater! We'd be happy to talk to you more about it. Feel free to contact the pastor or the church office to get more information.