

What happens after the worship service?

After the worship service is over, everyone is invited to come to a time of fellowship, coffee, juice, and light snacks free of charge. This is VERY informal and just a time to connect with others. Whether you're here by yourself, with someone else, or with your family, you are invited to join us.