

What should I wear?

When you join us for worship and throughout the week, you'll see people wearing everything from suits to jeans and t-shirts and everything in between. What's important is that you're comfortable and that you can feel like yourself.